Dear Parents/Carers,

As you are aware, Miss Stephens is expecting a baby and will shortly be starting a period of maternity leave. Her final day with the class is planned to be Friday 16th May. We wish her and her family all the very best and look forward to seeing some baby photos in due course!

Mrs Pepler, our current class teacher, and Miss Head, current class teaching assistant, will continue to teach Owls for the remainder of the academic year.

We are keen to minimise any disruption for the children and have therefore appointed Miss Hoskins as an additional class teacher on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Miss Hoskins is an experienced teacher and a very familiar face for the children as she has been working in Owls since the start of this academic year as an intervention teacher. Mrs Keen, who the children have met before, will teach the children on Mondays and Mrs Sutton will teach on Fridays.

I am confident that this team will ensure that the children in Owls continue to receive high quality teaching and learning and strong pastoral support.

Please do not hesitate to speak to a member of the Owls team if you have any questions, or to contact me via the school office.

Many thanks

Lou Rhodes
Headteacher
